TRIVETT'S GRASS SEEDS

LAWNS :: GOLF COURSES :: SPORTS GROUNDS

For Those Who Demand the Best

T.T.S.

MAKING THE LAWN

A well kept lawn instantly commands the attention of all lovers of the beautiful in Nature and is an unfailing mark of intelligence and taste. The best soil is a good garden loam of medium texture: the surface should be thoroughly pulverized and smoothed to the desired grade. Remove all large stones, roots and hardened pieces of earth that cannot be readily broken, ample time being allowed for the thorough settling of the soil, which is greatly aided by a few heavy showers of rain. The surface should be from 2 to 5 inches in thickness on a subsoil somewhat porous but of character to retain and return to the top soil by capillarity enough moisture to supply the grass roots during periods between rains. Impervious clay subsoils can be improved by admixture of some porous material as granulated peat moss and prepared humus.

The high grade lawn grasses will maintain their own in competition with weeds if supplied with sufficient plant food. Vigoro is an ideal plant food to use. See Fertilizers.

When the soil is firm, level and suitably moist, sow lawn seed at the rate of 6 to 8 pounds to each 1000 square feet, or about 250 pounds to the acre. This rate of seeding has been advised by the U. S. Golf Association Green Section. It is unwise to be too economical in the quantity of seed used if the best results are desired. The seed should be sown broadcast and as evenly as possible, then give a thorough rolling. The seed must be well firmed in the soil.

Crabgrass, the worst lawn pest, is an annual starting in late Spring and often "taking" the lawn in a showery Summer as it spreads rapidly by root stocks and runners. It should be weeded out by hand in early stages as it is almost impossible to control after becoming established. Crabgrass reseeds itself and though it dies out at the first freeze the seeds are in the ground to germinate the following year.

A new lawn should be seeded in the early Fall if possible and six weeks growth before Winter, with proper fertilization, assures a comparatively weedless lawn; or seed can be sown early in the Spring and if well fed with Vigoro the grass will thrive and compete strongly with weeds. Persistent weeds such as Crabgrass and Chickweed should be weeded by hand. Always keep a little lawn seed to sow where weeds have been pulled.

Superficial sprinkling is worse than none. Give the lawn a thorough soaking every week during dry periods so that the water penetrates and is absorbed by the subsoil. Let your slogan be: "Crowd out the weeds with lawn grass."

General Surface Renovating—When your lawn has been established, you will find it to your advantage to lightly reseed each season. As early as possible, carefully rake off all dead leaves, etc., and give the lawn a dressing of Vigoro at the rate of at least 40 pounds to 1000 square feet, and rake in, after which sow our lawn seed at the rate of 3 to 4 pounds to 1000 square feet; roll thoroughly or tamp with the back of a spade.

Renovating in Spots or Patches—In the best kept lawns unsightly spots devoid of grass will appear, which are caused by impoverished soil, root-destroying insects or fungous disease; and as these spots are not protected by a covering of turf during the Winter, the chemical elements in the soil are leached out by the action of the weather, causing them to "cake" or become hard early in the Spring. It is useless and a waste of seed to sow these spots unless they are prepared to receive the seed. For this purpose cover them with Vigoro at the rate of 4 pounds to 100 square feet, then dig these spots up, and after raking until no trace of the fertilizer can be seen, sow our lawn seed at the rate of 2 pounds to each 250 square feet; roll thoroughly or tamp with the back of a spade.

Trivett's Bent Formula Grass Mixture No. 1 (With South German Bent)

Formerly sold by us under the name of "Trivett's Velvet Bent Formula," this mixture is one of our best sellers and is especially offered to those seeking a lawn mixture superior to the average good lawn grass mixture.

It contains 25 per cent South German Bent and will supply your lawn with such valuable varieties as Velvet Bent, Colonial Bent, Rhode Island Bent, Creeping Bent, etc., which are derived from the South German Bent.

Combined with several other high grade grasses, we believe no better lawn grass mixture can be offered for general purposes.

Trivett's Bent Formula Grass Mixture No. 2 (With Prince Edward Island Bent)

A special mixture of fine domestic and imported grasses, with which we have included 20 per cent of Prince Edward Island Bent, this is an ideal variety for fine lawns, because it requires less cutting, less watering and less feeding than other Bents. It grows upright and spreads by underground root stocks; is extra hardy, withstanding the most severe Winters.

Prince Edward Island Bent forms an ideal turf of dark green color. Uniform in texture, and almost immune to small brown patch.

The ideal, high grade mixture for New England.

Trivett's Bent Formula Grass Mixture No. 3 (With Coos County Creeping Bent)

An extra choice mixture of high grade, fine-leaved lawn grasses with which we have combined 20 per cent of Coos Creeping Bent (Sea-Side Bent). A true, stoloniferous or creeping Bent, spreading rapidly by means of stolons or runners. Produces ideal green carpetlike turf. Requires watering and frequent cutting.

Coos Bent seems to be resistant to large brown patch and is better adapted to warm, humid conditions than other strains. For smaller areas where an exceptionally fine piece of turf is desired, our No. 3 Mixture will be found especially suitable.

Trivett's Bent Formula Grass Mixture No. 4 (With South German Bent, Prince Edward Island Bent, Coos Bent and Rhode Island Bent)

For very special places where a very choice turf, composed principally of the high grade Bent Grasses is desired.

This mixture, in addition to the finest of domestic and imported lawn grasses, contains 10 per cent each of the above mentioned four Bent varieties, 40 per cent in all, when it is considered that these choice sorts contain upwards of five million seeds to the pound, it will be readily understood that the quantity of seed required for sowing a given area will be much less than with regular mixtures (about half).

Sow 3 to 4 lbs. on 1000 square feet, mixed with sand.

FOR OTHER SEPARATE NAMED GRASSES—

See page 10

The great popularity of golf has brought the Fine Bent Grasses into prominence through their almost universal use on putting greens in the northern half of the country.

The Bent Grasses are native to acid soils but will thrive over a wide range of soils though naturally favoring those toward the acid side. Where soils are chiefly alkaline, a fertilizer high in nitrogen, and preferably with an acid reaction, is a great advantage in maintaining good bent turf. Recent experiments have shown that Vigoro fertilizer is capable of maintaining bent turf in the very finest condition. Golf clubs use sulphate of ammonia, which has an acid reaction and is high in nitrogen, but is not a complete fertilizer and may burn the grass if used carelessly.

These Bent Grasses, particularly Prince Edward Island Bent, are not temperamental and will stand a lot of hard usage if given reasonable care and good fertilizer. A new Bent lawn should have at least 3 inches of fine top soil over a well drained subsoil. Fertilizer should be applied at the rate of 25 lbs. to 1000 square feet at least a week before seeding. Bent Seed should be mixed with fine sand or commercial humus (5 parts of sand to 1 part of seed) for even distribution. If sown too thickly it may damp off.

Most turf weeds are discouraged by acid-reacting fertilizers and their continued use not only encourages Bent Grass but makes the weed problem much simpler, and will help greatly to eliminate Summer grass or Crab grass.

The Bent Grasses are inexpensive when the amount sown to the square foot is taken into consideration. There are about 5,000,000 seeds to the pound.

For new seeding sow about 3 lbs. (mixed with 1 peck of sand) to 1000 square feet. For old lawns or reseeding, 1 to 2 lbs. will be sufficient.

For Spring seeding, we advise 10 per cent Italian or Domestic Rye Grass as a nurse crop on lawns only. The Rye Grass dies out in a year's time. Fertilize two or three times during the season at the rate of 25 lbs. to 1000 square feet and see that the fertilizer is watered into the soil and does not stay on the grass.

CERTIFIED PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND BENT SEED

(Agrostis tenuis in Canada—capillaris or vulgaris in the United States)

Average purity 90 to 95 per cent. An extra hardy strain of Colonial Bent grown on Prince Edward Island under very severe Winter conditions. Certified and sealed in 50-lb. bags by the Canadian Department of Agriculture. Smaller quantities resealed by us. Grows upright and spreads by underground root stocks. Almost immune to small brown patch.

Prince Edward Island Bent is the ideal bent grass for lawns because it requires less cutting, less water, and less top dressing than the creeping varieties. It requires little attention except weeding.

100 lbs. $198.00	50 lbs. $99.50	10 lbs. $22.00
5 lbs. $12.00	1 lb. $2.50

CERTIFIED NEW BRUNSWICK CREEPING BENT

(Agrostis stolonifera var. compacta)

Seed production very limited. A new variety of true creeping Bent, spreading by stolons or runners. Finer in texture than Seaside Bent and most commercial strains.

The demand is expected to be much greater than the supply Certified and sealed in 10-lb. bags by the Canadian Department of Agriculture. Similar to Coos or Seaside Bent in general habit of growth.

10 lbs. $28.00	5 lbs. $15.00	1 lb. $3.25
-----------------	----------------	--------------

CERTIFIED VELVET BENT SEED

(Agrostis canina)

A very limited quantity of pure Velvet Creeping Bent is grown on Prince Edward Island and produces what is probably the finest turf known. Fields are inspected 90 per cent as to variety, but due to the aggressive character of P. E. I. Bent (Agrostis tenuis) the recleaned seed is approximately 90 per cent Agrostis species of which 60 per cent to 70 per cent is pure Velvet Bent. Prince Edward Island is the only source of supply other than the small quantities sometimes found in German Mixed Bent. About 10,000,000 seeds to the pound.

Certified and sealed in 10 lb. bags by the Canadian Department of Agriculture. Smaller quantities resealed by us. Lb. $7.50

CERTIFIED COOS CREEPING BENT OR SEASIDE BENT SEED

(Agrostis maritima—sometimes Agrostis stolonifera maritima and Agrostis palustris)

Average purity 98 to 99 per cent. The very highest quality grown in Coos County, Oregon, and certified and sealed in 50-lb. bags by the Oregon Department of Agriculture. A true, stoloniferous or creeping Bent, spreading rapidly by means of stolons or runners. Makes ideal putting green turf.

On lawns, will spread more quickly than upright, non-creeping sorts but requires more water and frequent cutting. If neglected it will form a tangled surface growth. Coos or Seaside Bent is in great demand by golf clubs as it is much cheaper and more satisfactory than many vegetative strains.

100 lbs. $175.00	50 lbs. $88.50	10 lbs. $18.00
5 lbs. $9.75	1 lb. $2.00

Remember—The Bent grasses require slightly more attention and care than the common grasses on alkaline soils as they are growing under rather artificial conditions.

Prince Edward Island Bent is native to the drier places and Coos Bent to moist locations. Each thrives best as native conditions are approximated.

SOUTH GERMAN BENT

A natural mixture, chiefly Colonial Bent, containing sometimes a slight amount of Creeping Bent and a somewhat larger quantity of Velvet Bent. No two lots alike and often contains Red Top. Those desiring some Velvet Bent in their lawns and who do not object to a mixed surface of many strains can sow German Bent to advantage.

Superfine.	100 lbs. $170.00	50 lbs. $86.00	10 lbs. $17.50
	5 lbs. $9.25	1 lb. $1.95
Recleaned.	100 lbs. $150.00	50 lbs. $76.00	10 lbs. $15.50
	5 lbs. $8.25	1 lb. $1.75

RHODE ISLAND BENT OR COLONIAL BENT

New Zealand grown. Also known as Colonial Bent or Browntop (Agrostis tenuis, capillaris or vulgaris). Botanically the same as Prince Edward Island Bent but grown under mild Winter conditions. Not certified but usually high in purity. HAY AND PASTURE GRASS

Old English

FORMULA

The mixture that has made the pastures of old England famous, slightly changed to suit the climatic conditions of this country. Where a fair sprinkling of Clover is desired, we advise customer to purchase about 5 lbs. of medium Red Clover to each 100 lbs. of grass separately and broadcast after sowing the grass. This method will assure an even growth of Clover in the field whereas if the Clover seed is mixed with the grass seed, it will sift down to the bottom of bags.

For a good sowing, use 200 to 250 lbs. per acre.

OLD ENGLISH FORMULA No. 1 for light soil.

OLD ENGLISH FORMULA No. 2 for medium soil.

OLD ENGLISH FORMULA No. 3 for heavy soil.

FROM THE FLOWER GARDENS OF ENGLAND

For generations England has been famous for her flower gardens. It has been there, in England and Scotland, in the wonderful old country estates and public gardens that many of our most choice varieties have been created. It is to the old world gardeners with their patience, enthusiasm and love for their profession that we are indebted for the great advancement in and perfection of, floriculture today

Notes on Raising Flower Seeds

ANNUALS (HARDY). Those families which are sown and bloom the first season, the plants dying with the approach of Winter, such as Alyssum, Calliopsis, Candytuft, Centaurea, Mignonette, Nasturtium, Poppy, Sweet Peas, etc. Sow from April to June, the later sowings being confined to rapid-growing annuals only. The ground should be previously prepared by digging, working in a little manure at the same time. The surface should be made level and finely raked. If the weather is dry, give a watering some hours before sowing. Sow thinly and gently press the seed into the earth, covering lightly with finely sifted soil; the very small seeds must have very little covering. Keep the soil moist and shaded until the seedlings are up; the shade can be managed with branches of evergreens or sheets of paper fastened to little stakes. When large enough to handle, thin out freely, leaving space for each plant to develop to its full size. Thinning out is best done during dull, moist weather, or in the evening time. In calculating the distance that should be left between plant and plant, it may be taken as a general rule that plants which attain, when fully grown, a height of 1 foot, require to be thinned out to at least $\frac{1}{2}$ foot apart, and so on.

Many of the hardy annuals may be sown in August and September, for Spring and early Summer flowering, and if the seedlings are boldly thinned out at an early stage they become hardy and robust, producing finer plants and a greater profusion of bloom than when sown in Spring.

Hardy Annuals do not, in most cases, transplant well; they should therefore be sown, where intended to bloom.

Half-hardy Annuals. Slower in growth than the Hardy Annuals. They include Antirrhinum, Aster, Cosmos, Marigold, Salpiglossis, Salvia, Stocks, Verbena, Zinnia, etc. May be sown in March or April, in gentle heat, in pans, shallow boxes, or pots, a light sandy soil being used. Shade from the sun's rays till seedlings are up; this can be done by simply placing a newspaper lightly over them. As soon as the seedlings are large enough to handle, prick off into shallow boxes, and when strong enough and all danger of frost is over, plant out on to well-prepared ground.

Those who have no convenience for sowing in heat can sow all Half-hardy Annuals in the open border middle of May.

GREENHOUSE FLOWERS such as Calceolaria, Cineraria, Cyclamen, Primula, etc. Sow in gentle heat, in pans of loam, leaf soil and sand, in equal parts, placing a piece of glass over the pan and keeping shaded and moist until the seedlings are up; pot these off singly when large enough, and replace in heat, shading and keeping close until established, and pot on as necessary.

PERENNIALS. Those plants which do not usually blossom until the following year after sowing, but continue to flower and increase each year thereafter, many however, will flower the first season from seed if sown in February indoors, and planted out. Some popular perennials are Aquilegia, Delphinium, Digitalis, Gaillardia, Hollyhock, etc. Sow from March to July in pans or in drills on a prepared bed of light, rich soil and keep shaded and moist until the seedlings appear. Prick these out as soon as large enough to handle, into shallow boxes or nursery beds, and when strong enough transplant to permanent situations. Do not allow the seedlings to remain too long in the seed pans or to get starved for want of water.

Hardy Alpines. Seeds of Alpines, rock plants, and all hardy Primulaceae should be sown in pots or pans during early Winter, and after a good watering should be stood outdoors against a north hedge or wall where the soil can get frozen. Then when milder weather sets in, bring the pans into gentle warmth and the seeds will germinate freely. After March it is better to wait and sow the seed in Winter, giving the treatment as recommended above.

BIENNIALS require similar treatment to perennials. They include Campanula, Pansy, Sweet-william, etc. The plants die after the flowering season.

NOTE—In the case of very hard-shelled seeds it will be found a good plan to steep them in tepid water for some hours previous to sowing, as this will hasten their germination

SWEET PEAS and seeds which are liable to attack from mice should be steeped for half an hour in kerosene oil previous to sowing

NEW WILT - RESISTANT STRAIN

Raiser's description

For several years we have been working on a strain of Asters resistant to the Fusarium wilt disease, which has caused so much trouble to both amateur and professional growers in recent years. The plants may be stricken with the wilt at any stage in their growth, from the seedling to the flowering stage, and as yet no method of control has been discovered. We believe prevention through highly wilt resistant strains is the only method of combating the disease.

See also notes under "Hardy Alpines," on page 13.

Acanthus, Aconitum, Adonis vernalis, Androsace, Anemone, Asperula odorata, Clematis, Delphinium Yellow Nudicaule, Delphinium Pink Nudicaule, Delphinium Red Nudicaule, Dictamnus, Gentiana acaulis, Incarvillea, Iris, Perennial Phlox, Hardy Primulas, Saxifraga, Trollius, and some of the rare Alpine plants.

Culture—Early sowings can be made during Winter and early Spring indoors or in hotbeds. A January-February sowing will produce flowers the first season. A good seed soil is three parts clean garden loam, one part sweet leafmold and one part clean sand mixed well with a little charcoal (no chemical fertilizers) and screened fine. Sow the seed in shallow drills, never more than ¼ inch deep, and fill them with clean sand. Never let the seed bed dry out, or become soggy; keep shaded and moist. When the seed breaks through, remove the shade, and when the seedlings have formed round leaves they should be transplanted. After June 1st, do not sow until early August, using New Crop Seed. See notes, this page.

Grown for us by specialists.

Not recommended to the amateur grower unless in possession of greenhouse, conservatory or similar facilities. Successive sowings should be made from March to June, in shallow seed pans, in a compost consisting of two parts leafmold, one part loam, and one part sand. Cover the seed lightly and place in a temperature ranging from 50 to 60 degrees. Keep the seed almost dark. As soon as the seedlings appear, prick them off into boxes or pans in a compost similar to above. When the plants are large enough put into 3 in. pots, adding a little more loam to the compost; shift into larger pots later. All Primulas prefer a cool temperature.

TRIVETT'S SELECTED SALVIA (Flowering Sage)

Annual, Biennial, and Perennial. Reselected Strains. Sal-vi-a

Salvia is a Latin name used as far back as Pliny, meaning to be healthy, referring to the medicinal properties of some species. There is said to be 407 species and the variation is astonishing. The color of the flowers ranges from scarlet through purple and violet to azure blue, white, pink and even pale yellow. The varieties we offer do exceedingly well in America. Seed should be sown indoors during February-March and the young plants put outside during May, thus assuring early blooming and a long season.

They prefer ordinary garden soil. Too much feeding will cause rank growth, retard the flowers, and increase the height. Clumps of scarlet Salvias in large perennial borders or against dark evergreens at a distance will always command attention.

NEW SCABIOUS-FLOWERED ZINNIAS

Giant Dahlia-flowered Zinnias will be found listed on page 97. The normal height and habit of Zinnias is often affected by richness of soil and climatical conditions.

All our Zinnia Seeds are treated with a special formula of our own, as a preventive against seed carried diseases.

Zinnias delight in our American climate and are easy to grow. Seed may be sown indoors during early Spring or outdoors from May onwards for succession. Separate varieties of Zinnias do not reproduce themselves entirely true to color and type, therefore, if necessary a few pot grown plants should be held in reserve for replacement purposes.

TRIVETT'S TESTED AND GUARANTEED VEGETABLE SEEDS

UP-TO-DATE, PEDIGREE VEGETABLES ARE HIGHEST IN FOOD VALUE

IMPROVED VARIETIES

The importance of selecting improved and better varieties of vegetables cannot be over-emphasized. It is well-known that older sorts "run out," lose much of their merit, become more susceptible to diseases and insect attacks than up-to-date, improved varieties.

It pays to select new and improved strains.

TESTED AND GUARANTEED

Our seeds are tested for purity and germinating power and are guaranteed (See page 1). Our varieties are tested for vigorous growth, superior table quality, cropping ability and suitability for satisfactory culture in this country. Truly "Best by Test" standard.

It pays to secure tested and guaranteed seeds

COST OF SEED

The difference in cost of tested and guaranteed seed grown by specialists and the ordinary stock is merely nominal. The outlay for seed is the smallest part of gardening operations; selection, the most important. It costs just as much to grow ordinary stocks as it does for improved and selected strains.

It pays to pay for the best

TRIVETT'S BROCCOLI

Brocoli (Ital.) Sparkelkohl (Ger.)
Broccoli (Fr.)

Trivett's Emerald Isle.

Improved green headed variety that, owing to earliness and rapid growth, is one of the few that will "head up" in this country, producing heads like Cauliflower, but grass green in color, retaining this color after cooking. After the large main head has been cut, the plant will produce a number of smaller heads which should be bunched together for cooking. A good proportion of stem should be cut with the heads, these cook soft and are very similar to Asparagus.

Oz. 75c. ½ oz. 40c. Pkt. 15c.

T.T.S.

BROCCOLI—Trivett's Emerald Isle

How to Grow Broccoli—The type we offer above is, in our opinion, the only sort worth while attempting to grow in this country. Most of the varieties popular in Europe do not do well here. "Trivett's Emerald Isle" is such a rapid grower that the seed may be sown at different times and several crops secured. However, those which come in during July and August are somewhat inferior, being inclined to bolt or break into flower and seed. For real quality and production, it is best to treat like Cauliflower, that is secure an early crop in frames from a February sowing and a late crop outdoors (September and October) from a June sowing.

BRUSSELS SPROUTS

Berza de Brussels (Ital.) Rosekohl (Ger.) Chou de Bruxelles (Fr.)

Oz. $1.25 ½ oz. 65c. ¼ oz. 35c. Pkt. 25c.

Long Island Improved. Half dwarf. An American variety well suited to our climate, and extensively grown for the New York market. Very robust grower.

Oz. 75c. ½ oz. 40c. ¼ oz. 25c. Pkt. 15c.

Sow seed of Brussels Sprouts about 15th of May, thin out young seedlings, and when 3 inches high, plant out in garden in rows 3 feet apart and 2 feet between the plants. When heads begin to form, break off leaves from plant, commencing with the lower ones, and following up the stem as the Sprouts develop. Brussels Sprouts are of very late maturing habit, the flavor is much improved by slight frosts. Some gardeners find it advisable to sow earlier than above date, for their particular locality.

MUSHROOMS

Ten bricks will spawn 100 square feet (10x10 feet)

Mushroom beds may be made in a warm, dry cellar, or in any building where the frost does not penetrate and in the open air during the Summer and Fall months. About two or three weeks before the beds are to be made collect a quantity of fresh horse manure without the straw; place it in a heap under cover, and as it heats keep turning it over once or twice a week, until the heat has become exhausted, which will require from 10 to 14 days' time. When the manure is in a condition to be made up lay out your bed, according to your requirements, say 3 feet wide, 10 feet long and from 2 to 3 feet deep; beat it down well with the back of the spade as the process of building goes on. When the bed has been made some time, say a week or thereabouts, and the heat sufficiently declined to a temperature of 65 or 75 degrees, the spawn may be put into it. Break the spawn in pieces 2 inches square, and put them 6 inches apart, all over the bed; then cover the bed with 2 inches of rich soil. When the soil looks dry give a gentle watering with tepid water, using a rose on the watering pot. Good crops of Mushrooms can be obtained by spawning the hotbeds in Spring.

Brick Spawn, American Pure Culture

Ten bricks will spawn 100 square feet (10x10 feet)

Spores have been selected from specimen Mushrooms and transferred to bricks of compressed manure and loam. Break the brick into pieces the size of a walnut and plant 6 inches apart each way.

Bottle Spawn, A New Process

One quart will spawn 35 square feet

In this new method the spores are propagated in sterile glass bottles, the spawn removed, dried, and packed in cartons. Excluded from the Spawn are the spores of other fungous growths, many of which are highly poisonous; no insect eggs, flies, or weed seeds. Pieces the size of a nut are planted in the usual way. Produces white Mushrooms. As this spawn is perishable, orders are filled direct from factory.

DON'T STICK TO THE OLD VARIETIES OF VEGETABLES—MANY OF THEM "RUN OUT" GROW THE NEW AND IMPROVED SORTS

TRIVETT'S NEW GARDEN PEAS

OLD VARIETIES "RUN OUT" — KEEP UP-TO-DATE — GROW THE NEW SORTS

Standard varieties of vegetables reproducing themselves year after year through a long period of time, eventually "run out," exhaust themselves and become superseded by the newer and improved strains.

We are constantly on the watch for new and improved strains to offer our customers.

NEW EARLY PEAS

Aviator. Raised by Messrs. Laxton of England. Quite distinct and combines all the best qualities of two very popular sorts, viz., Laxton's Superb and British Lion. It is a blue, round-seeded sort, hardy and can be sown very early; it is a first early variety growing about 3½ feet high, produces handsome, long, well filled pods containing seven to ten peas of unsurpassed quality. Highly recommended (English grown seed).

4 qts. (8 lbs.) $7.00 Qt. (2 lbs.) $1.80
Pt. (1 lb.) 95c.

Trivett's Abundance. We have pleasure in offering our customers this grand new early Pea. A round, blue seed sort maturing at about the same time as Gradus, but producing about 25% more crop. Hardy, strong growing vines about 3 feet in height, covered with good sized pods, containing 7 to 8 green peas of superb sweet flavor. Can be sown early.

4 qts. (8 lbs.) $5.00 Qt. (2 lbs.) $1.35
Pt. (1 lb.) 75c.

Greenmantle. New and distinct Pea of the Superb type, but having intensely dark green foliage. Pods mostly in pairs, 3½ to 4 inches long, dark green, 7 to 8 large green peas in pods; of good flavor; a heavy cropper. Height about 2 feet.

4 qts. (8 lbs.) $7.00 Qt. (2 lbs.) $1.80
Pt. (1 lb.) 95c.

SECOND EARLY PEA

Sutton's Phenomenon. This splendid Pea is regarded by many as being one of the finest dwarf Peas ever introduced. The crop produced is quite prodigious and the pods are of extraordinary size, no other dwarf sort can surpass it in size of pod; 9 to 12 peas in a pod. The table quality is very choice. Height about 2 feet.

T.T.S.

NEW MAIN CROP PEAS

Trivett's Monster. A grand new sort; midseason, producing very large, rich, dark green pods which are filled with exceptionally large peas, blue green in color and of unsurpassed table quality. When cooked this sort will be found to contain the genuine rich sweet marrowfat flavor. The vines are of vigorous, healthy growth, reaching a height of about 5 feet. Being a wrinkled sort, it should not be sown too early. Stock very limited. ½ pt. pkts., each 95c.

Onward. One of the best of the recent introductions. Coming in just ahead of Telephone. It is immensely productive with its handsome dark green pods produced in great profusion on sturdy, healthy vines which grow about 2½ feet in height. The blunt-nosed pods hang in pairs and are very tightly packed with peas of delicious, sweet flavor. A distinct and excellent variety. Highly recommended.

Round-seeded sorts can be sown very early but wrinkled varieties are liable to rot if the ground is cold. The character of the season, nature of the soil, etc., affect the height and date of crops.

Soak seed in water for day or two before sowing. Sow wrinkled varieties thickly. One quart is sufficient for a 50-foot double row.

Spinaccio (Ital.) Spinat (Ger.) Epinard (Fr.)

One ounce will sow a 50 ft. row

The first sowing should be made as early as possible, March and later, in drills about 14 inches apart, covering the seed about 1 inch. Trivett's American Upright. (New, 1935.) A strong, upright growing variety. Produces a heavy crop of broad, firm, thick, pale green leaves, and the largest of any Spinach. Slow to run to seed. Especially recommended to those objecting to the curled, savoy-leaved type.

THE GRAND NEW PHLOX

COLUMBIA

(Patented)

Mrs. Francis King, says:

"Columbia, the new cameo-pink Phlox which has risen on the garden horizon is of the most exquisite beauty. A soft pink recalling that of Phlox, Elizabeth Campbell, but lighter, more delicate and with an eye of light blue which has a charming effect upon the general color of the flower. This Phlox grows 2 to 2½ feet high, is very bushy, and, a fact most marvelous, it has no enemies. Red Spider does not visit it, mildew does not cover it—it is entirely pest-free and flourishes after the coldest Winter and in the hottest Summer. Altogether, an amazingly good addition to the list of plants which give color and richness to the Midsummer border."

A well-grown, two-year-old plant will produce 6 to 15 flower spikes. The flowers last over a week in water. The nature of the vigorous, bushy plants is such that it continues to bloom several weeks longer than other Phlox.

PLANT TUBS

Much can be said in praise of the wood our tubs are made from, namely, "Heart Cypress," but briefly, it has proved to be decidedly superior to all other woods, not only in durability but in appearance. It does not need a coating as a filler, as the wood naturally contains a certain amount of oil. Consequently it does not warp, shrink or swell, and in general it is the wood for plant tubs.

The workmanship on these tubs is equally good. No tub goes from the shops that has not been thoroughly made, and made to last for years, and our tubs are serviceable for practically every situation.

If you need tubs, buy good ones, and they will last you for many years. Most tubs, of course, look alike when they are freshly painted, but it is only after using them that their value can be realized.
